

Love on Your Side
Owen Danoff

Fine, blame it on me, tell me you see
I'll never be your savior
But babe, I'm weary of this, the price of your bliss
Your poisonous kiss, your misbehavior

So I'll go, but we both know
You won't be alone here for long

You've got love on your side
You've got love on your side
If it's me or another lover tonight
You'll get by, you've got love on your side

Yes, you had me before, knees on the floor
To better adore your splendor
But now I know where you've been, while I've been waiting
You're chasing your sinful pleasure

You've got love on your side
You've got love on your side
If it's me or another lover tonight
You'll get by, you've got love on your side

Quiet down, and dry those tears
In the end, don't pretend that you want me here
Baby, now, don't look so low
You make a friend everywhere you go

You've got love on your side
You've got love on your side
If it's me or another lover tonight
You'll have your hands on a man who can turn out the light
If it's me or another lover tonight
You'll get by, you've got love on your side
