

What You Mean To Me
Owen Danoff

I'd watch the sun rise by your side if I could
But to know your eye is on the same sky is just as good
I guess I'm reaching for whatever I can hold on to Anything to feel a little closer to you

Wherever I am, wherever you are
I'll be there, never far
Wherever you go is where I'll be
Until you've seen
Just what you mean to me

If it's a white gate or the fifty states, I'd feel the same
'Cause you know I can't wait to kiss you, I hate to miss you, whatever is to blame
I'll try it all, a call, a letter, and a song for you
I'll walk these streets forever until I get through

Wherever I am, wherever you are
I'll be there, never far
Wherever you go is where I'll be
Until you've seen
Just what you mean to me

Do you remember when we met? I thought the clocks were stopping
That night, those lights, your silhouette will never be forgotten
And so much hasn't happened yet, but we've got the time
I'm giving all to you if you'll stay mine

Wherever I am, wherever you are
I'll be there, never far
Wherever you go is where I'll be
Until you've seen
Just what you mean to me
Until you've seen
Just what you mean
